

RISK MANIFESTATIONS AND IMPACT OF DISASTERS

BETWEEN 1998 AND 2017

91% of 7.255 disaster events registered had climate-related origin.

45% of affected persons by disasters were due to floods.

43% of total disaster events registered were floods.

28.2% of total disaster events registered were storms.

More than 300 thousand deaths were induced by events of geological origin.

56% of deaths were due to earthquakes.

312 thousand deaths due to disasters.

17% of total deaths were due to storms.

7 out of 10 persons died due to events of geological origin (earthquakes).

9 out of 10 affected persons were due to climate-related events.

1 out of 4 disasters registered in the world happened in Latin America and the Caribbean.

277 million people were affected directly or indirectly by disaster events.

26% of deaths were due to climate-related events.

93% of 1786 registered events had climate-related origin.

7% of registered events had geological origin.

